CPT Catering

Chef Guy creates exciting and unforgettable culinary experiences by offering unique flavors of fresh & locally sourced ingredients.

Chef Guy has participated in many local events, established a very strong relationship with the local military community and charities including the Hawaii Make-A-Wish Foundation. Prior to moving to Hawaii, Chef Guy is the founder of Air Culinaire, the largest private aviation catering company in the United States. Air Culinaire was created to provide high end, trend-setting business aviation catering. Air Culinaire expanded to six locations across the nation and became the leading provider in the business aviation catering. Under his leadership, Air Culinaire participated in multiple high profile events including three Presidential Inaugurations, the Masters Golf Tournament in Augusta, Georgia and the 2005 Super Bowl in Jacksonville, Florida.

Chef Guy will work directly with you to create specialized menus to meet requests and budget requirements.
